

ILEA Budapest

Quick Facts

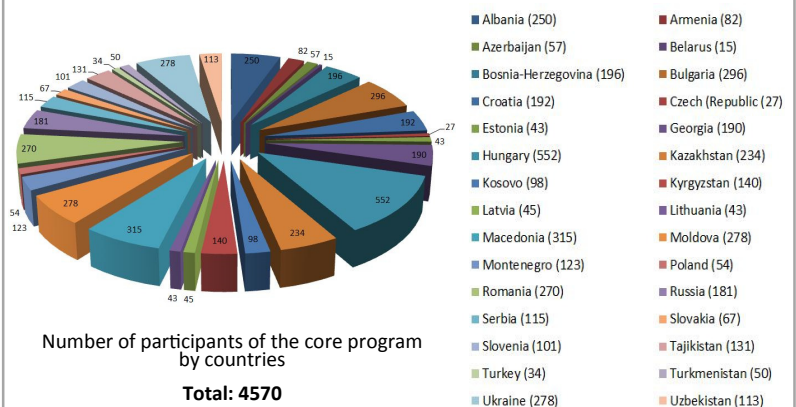

- Established in 1995, ILEA Budapest is a joint U.S.-Government of Hungary initiative.
- ILEA Budapest provides state-of-the-art professional development training for Police Officers, Judges and Prosecutors.
- ILEA Budapest's leadership training emphasizes rule of law, respect for human rights and law enforcement's critical role in a civil society.
- ILEA Budapest conducts over thirty-five courses a year utilizing visiting instructors from over 15 US Federal Law Enforcement Agencies.
- Since 1995, ILEA Budapest has trained over 22,000 participants from over 100 countries.
- ILEA Budapest is administered by the U.S. Department of State, through the International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs Bureau.
- ILEA Budapest is headed by two U.S. accredited diplomats who fall under Budapest Chief of Mission Authority and act as Director and Deputy Director.
- ILEA Budapest is located on the "Buda" side of the city on a Hungarian National Police compound.

Two Types of ILEA Training:

Core Course:

The ILEA seven-week Law Enforcement Leadership Development (LELD) Course focuses on leadership and provides participants with broad knowledge and techniques covering a wide range of law enforcement topics — public corruption, organized crime, drug enforcement, tactical survival techniques, counterterrorism. ILEA typically hosts four core courses per year.

Specialized Courses:

ILEA Specialized courses run one to two weeks in length and are developed to focus in depth on a specific substantive area of law enforcement.

Course topics include but are not limited to: anti-corruption, crime scene management, post-blast investigation, environmental criminal investigations, investigation child pornography, witness/victim protection, cyber crimes, multicultural policing, trafficking-in-persons.

ILEA hosts approximately thirty five specialized courses per year.

Address: 1126 Budapest, Böszörményi út 21.
Phone: +36 (1) 214-3247, +36 (1) 214-3248
E-mail: ilea@ilea.hu

<https://www.facebook.com/ilea.budapest?ref=hl>

<http://www.ilea.hu/>

<http://hungary.usembassy.gov/>

<http://www.state.gov/>